

Subpart B—Determining Rate of Basic Pay

SOURCE: 45 FR 65498, Oct. 3, 1980, unless otherwise noted.

§ 531.201 Applicability.

This subpart and sections 5333 and 5334 of title 5, United States Code, apply to employees and positions, other than Senior Executive Service positions, to which chapter 51 of title 5, United States Code, applies.

[58 FR 65535, Dec. 15, 1993; 59 FR 5223, Feb. 3, 1994]

§ 531.202 Definitions.

In this subpart:

Agency has the meaning given that word by section 5102 of title 5, United States Code.

Demotion means a change of an employee, while continuously employed, from:

(1) One General Schedule grade to a lower General Schedule grade, with or without reduction in pay; or

(2) A higher rate paid under authority other than subchapter III of chapter 53 of title 5, United States Code, to a lower rate within a General Schedule grade.

Employee means an employee of an agency to whom this subpart applies.

Existing rate of basic pay means the rate received immediately before the effective date of a transfer, promotion, demotion, or within-grade increase.

GM employee means an employee who was covered by the Performance Management and Recognition System under chapter 54 of title 5, United States Code, on October 31, 1993 (and therefore became covered on November 1, 1993, by section 4 of Pub. L. 103–89, the Performance Management and Recognition System Termination Act of 1993), and who continues thereafter to occupy a position as a supervisor or management official (as defined in paragraphs (10) and (11) of section 7103(a) of title 5, United States Code) in the same grade of the General Schedule and in the same agency without a break in service of more than 3 calendar days. Any reference to employees, grades, positions, or rates of basic pay under the General Schedule shall include GM employees for the purposes of subchapter I and III of chapter 53 of title 5, United States Code.

Higher grade means a General Schedule grade above the last previous General Schedule grade or its equivalent held by the employee.

Highest previous rate means—

(1) The highest actual rate of basic pay previously received by an individual while employed in a position in a branch of the Federal Government (executive, legislative, or judicial); a Government corporation, as defined in 5 U.S.C. 103; the United States Postal Service or the Postal Rate Commission; or the government of the District of Columbia (except as provided in § 531.203(d)(2)(v) of this part); without regard to whether the position was subject to the General Schedule; or

(2) The actual rate of basic pay for the highest grade and step previously held by an individual while employed in a position subject to the General Schedule.

Moved involuntarily means the movement of the incumbent of a position in a nonappropriated fund instrumentality under the jurisdiction of the Department of Defense or the Coast Guard, as described in 5 U.S.C. 2105(c), with the position when it is moved to the civil service employment system of the Department of Defense or the Coast Guard, respectively.

New appointment means the first appointment, regardless of tenure, as an employee of the Federal Government or the Government of the District of Columbia.

Promotion means a change of an employee, while continuously employed, from:

(1) One General Schedule grade to a higher General Schedule grade; or

(2) A lower rate paid under authority other than subchapter III of chapter 53 of title 5, United States Code, to a higher rate within a General Schedule grade.

Rate of basic pay means the rate of pay fixed by law or administrative action for the position held by an employee before any deductions and exclusive of additional pay of any kind.

Reassignment means a change of an employee, while serving continuously in the same agency, from one position
